

PRESS RELEASE

Local Historian to Lecture at Chawton House

A Pictorial Tour of Historic Chawton is the subject of a talk to be given by Jane Hurst at Chawton House Library the evening of Thursday 19 April. Many people associate Chawton just with Jane Austen's House and Chawton House, the Elizabethan manor house owned by her brother Edward Austen Knight, but there are many other fascinating stories about its people and properties which will be revealed.

In addition to being the Local Historian, Jane Hurst is also Secretary of the Hampshire Branch of the Jane Austen Society and has written several books about Alton and its surrounding area.

Reception with wine and canapés at 6.30pm, lecture at 7.00pm
Tickets £15.00 and £10.00 for Friends of Chawton House Library and students, available from Corrine Saint on 01420 541010 or email corrine.saint@chawton.net
